No public comment.

Old Business:

- The BURA Committee board members have changed since the last meeting. The first item was to designate a board chair. Melanie Dahl nominated Becky Duncan, and Priscilla Adamson seconded the motion, no objections.
- The committee heard old testimony from the last meeting regarding the approval of $19,950 for a flashing, lighted crosswalk on Main Street and Birch.

- The committee heard old testimony from the last meeting regarding Mountain Rides and the approval of $8,000 for a bus shelter. The commission was informed the bus shelters have gone up from $8,000 to $12,000 per shelter.

New Business

- Ashley Dyer introduced the BURA plan and the objective to the commission.
- The commission discussed the need for bus shelters in the valley, and the options. The commission approved $20,000 towards the $24,000 cost of the two proposed bus shelters at Main and Spruce, and Main and Cedar. Melanie motioned to approve the $20,000 and Priscilla seconded the motion, all in favor.
- The committee discussed the lighted/flashing crosswalk on Main Street and Birch Street that was approved from the last BURA committee; Melanie moved to approve $19,950.00 and Priscilla seconded the motion, all in favor.
- The committee asked if there were any requests from the City for improvement or construction along main street. Diane Shay discussed Lumican's possible future project on main street's lights to be switched to dark sky compliance.
- The committee discussed using Fuego's and Guffy's building tops to anchor City banners. A new pole will need to be constructed on Guffy's roof top to secure it. The committee approved to use funds from Construction to purchase a steel post.
- New signage for the beginning of the City (welcome sign) and Howard Preserve, as well as directional signs.
- The committee discussed decorating Main Street with Christmas lights since the light poles have been updated with electrical.
